Fatigue, Intake, Discharge

(5) Patients have the right to be treated with courtesy and respect and to have their privacy protected. Patients may designate a person or persons to be included in a patient's health care facility and where the service is not reimbursable by public or private insurance.

4. Physician's Identity

Patients shall have the right to be treated with courtesy and respect and to have their privacy protected. Patients may designate a person or persons to be included in a patient's health care facility and where the service is not reimbursable by public or private insurance.

5. Information About Treatment

Patients have the right to refuse care that they believe is against their religious beliefs.

6. Continuity of Care

Patients have the right to be treated with courtesy and respect and to have their privacy protected. Patients may designate a person or persons to be included in a patient's health care facility and where the service is not reimbursable by public or private insurance.

7. Right to Communication Disclosure and Right to Associate

Patients have the right to be treated with courtesy and respect and to have their privacy protected. Patients may designate a person or persons to be included in a patient's health care facility and where the service is not reimbursable by public or private insurance.

8. Right to Refuse Care

Patients have the right to be treated with courtesy and respect and to have their privacy protected. Patients may designate a person or persons to be included in a patient's health care facility and where the service is not reimbursable by public or private insurance.

9. Right to Refuse Treatment

Patients have the right to be treated with courtesy and respect and to have their privacy protected. Patients may designate a person or persons to be included in a patient's health care facility and where the service is not reimbursable by public or private insurance.

10. Right to Participate in Experimental Research

Patients have the right to be treated with courtesy and respect and to have their privacy protected. Patients may designate a person or persons to be included in a patient's health care facility and where the service is not reimbursable by public or private insurance.

11. Confidentiality of Records

Patients have the right to be treated with courtesy and respect and to have their privacy protected. Patients may designate a person or persons to be included in a patient's health care facility and where the service is not reimbursable by public or private insurance.

12. Right to Privacy

Patients have the right to be treated with courtesy and respect and to have their privacy protected. Patients may designate a person or persons to be included in a patient's health care facility and where the service is not reimbursable by public or private insurance.

13. Right to Personal Privacy

Patients have the right to be treated with courtesy and respect and to have their privacy protected. Patients may designate a person or persons to be included in a patient's health care facility and where the service is not reimbursable by public or private insurance.

14. Right to Communication Disclosure and Right to Associate

Patients have the right to be treated with courtesy and respect and to have their privacy protected. Patients may designate a person or persons to be included in a patient's health care facility and where the service is not reimbursable by public or private insurance.

15. Right to Professional Assistance

Patients have the right to be treated with courtesy and respect and to have their privacy protected. Patients may designate a person or persons to be included in a patient's health care facility and where the service is not reimbursable by public or private insurance.

16. Right to Representation

Patients have the right to be treated with courtesy and respect and to have their privacy protected. Patients may designate a person or persons to be included in a patient's health care facility and where the service is not reimbursable by public or private insurance.

17. Right to Access

Patients have the right to be treated with courtesy and respect and to have their privacy protected. Patients may designate a person or persons to be included in a patient's health care facility and where the service is not reimbursable by public or private insurance.

18. Right to Consent

Patients have the right to be treated with courtesy and respect and to have their privacy protected. Patients may designate a person or persons to be included in a patient's health care facility and where the service is not reimbursable by public or private insurance.

19. Right to Refusal

Patients have the right to be treated with courtesy and respect and to have their privacy protected. Patients may designate a person or persons to be included in a patient's health care facility and where the service is not reimbursable by public or private insurance.

20. Right to Information

Patients have the right to be treated with courtesy and respect and to have their privacy protected. Patients may designate a person or persons to be included in a patient's health care facility and where the service is not reimbursable by public or private insurance.

21. Right to Confidentiality

Patients have the right to be treated with courtesy and respect and to have their privacy protected. Patients may designate a person or persons to be included in a patient's health care facility and where the service is not reimbursable by public or private insurance.

22. Right to Freedom from Harm

Patients have the right to be treated with courtesy and respect and to have their privacy protected. Patients may designate a person or persons to be included in a patient's health care facility and where the service is not reimbursable by public or private insurance.

23. Right to Be Treated with Respect and to Have Privacy Protected

Patients have the right to be treated with courtesy and respect and to have their privacy protected. Patients may designate a person or persons to be included in a patient's health care facility and where the service is not reimbursable by public or private insurance.

24. Right to Be Treated with Respect and to Have Privacy Protected

Patients have the right to be treated with courtesy and respect and to have their privacy protected. Patients may designate a person or persons to be included in a patient's health care facility and where the service is not reimbursable by public or private insurance.

25. Right to Be Treated with Respect and to Have Privacy Protected

Patients have the right to be treated with courtesy and respect and to have their privacy protected. Patients may designate a person or persons to be included in a patient's health care facility and where the service is not reimbursable by public or private insurance.

26. Right to Be Treated with Respect and to Have Privacy Protected

Patients have the right to be treated with courtesy and respect and to have their privacy protected. Patients may designate a person or persons to be included in a patient's health care facility and where the service is not reimbursable by public or private insurance.

27. Right to Be Treated with Respect and to Have Privacy Protected

Patients have the right to be treated with courtesy and respect and to have their privacy protected. Patients may designate a person or persons to be included in a patient's health care facility and where the service is not reimbursable by public or private insurance.

28. Right to Be Treated with Respect and to Have Privacy Protected

Patients have the right to be treated with courtesy and respect and to have their privacy protected. Patients may designate a person or persons to be included in a patient's health care facility and where the service is not reimbursable by public or private insurance.